Privacy Statement

It is the policy of the Lessor not to give or share the tenant or guarantor's application /personal information to anyone for any reason. We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting it.

Your rental application and lease agreement are maintained in a locked fireproof file cabinet. No other person has access to tenant files.

Social security numbers are required on rental applications to obtain, if necessary, a credit report on the tenant and guarantor. If the tenant or guarantor fails to provide this information, the rental application can be rejected solely on this basis.

As an alternative, tenant and guarantor may provide a photocopy of their state driver's license along with the rental application and lease.
